WORDS OF HOPE

Be Like Trees

As autumn begins our attention is drawn to trees as we notice the leaves begin to change. As I reflect on how to live out my faith during these complex times, I increasingly turn to our call found within the scripture to be like trees! (Psalm 1) We are encouraged to be deeply rooted in the living waters of Christ (John 4), knit together as fellow members of the family of God (Ephesians 2).

What if our witness in the world was like that of trees? Trees which offer life-giving oxygen to the world, along with beauty, shade, fruit, protection, and places to play?

Trees are rooted in one location and make their environment better by their very presence. Having deep roots allows trees to develop wide branches. These branches reach out and touch the branches of neighboring other trees. Trees provide a connection from the smallest insect to the most majestic bird. Trees offer these life-giving gifts to all around them, not only to their particular kind.

God calls us to be people who offer life to the world, rooted in Christ rather than fear or despair. We are called to be attentive to our location and always discerning how we might be like trees. What if we too offered life-giving breath, gifts, comfort, and sustenance to those around us like each tree does? Imagine if we honored each other's roots and sought to grow connections rather than demarcating lines of division. Remember the words, "by their fruit you shall know them" (Matt 7). May the Spirit send a holy wind so the leaves of our heart might contribute to the healing of our relationships and our communities and beyond. May we, by God's grace, bear the fruit of the Spirit in our world. Let us be like trees!

Blessings, Pastor Meg

Hope Church is hosting a Fall Bible Study. This is a hybrid discussion both in-person at Hope and via Zoom,

September 22nd through November 17th at 7pm.

Join Rev. Pat Thompson and Pastor Meg for our study of the Psalms. Psalms have been a source of great comfort for many people across the ages. The book we will use is: "Psalms: The Prayer Book of the Bible" by Dietrich Bonhoeffer. It is available for purchase at church or on amazon.

♥ Blessing of the Pets ♥

On Saturday October 4th at 2 p.m., join us and bring your friends for a delightful celebration honoring the pets in our lives. All animals and humans are invited to this short worship gathering. If you don't have pets at home, feel free to bring stuffed animals for blessings! For shy pets, their favorite toy can be brought in for blessings instead. Please keep your pets secured for their safety. Refreshments will be provided for both humans and animals attending. Bring along your goldfish, dogs, cats, hamsters, horses, and any other beloved creatures to join in the festivities.

Bible Sunday

The church is committed to the tradition of giving young learners a Bible from their church family. We typically give bibles to children in the 3rd grade and above so that we can encourage them to grow in their faith. Please contact Pastor Meg or the church office if you have an interested child in your family who would like to receive a Bible on Sunday, October 19th. We want to make sure to recognize each recipient in a special way on that Sunday during worship.

Children's Sabbath

Children's Sabbath is a wonderful day in the church! This year it happens on Sunday, October 19th. We will celebrate the children in our congregation and lift up the needs of children across the globe. If you are interested in participating please see Pastor Meg.

HELP A NEIGHBOR IN NEED WITH FALL CHORES!

Many older and disabled adults in our community find themselves faced with a variety of basic chores, yardwork & minor repairs. For those who are frail or handicapped, have no family nearby, and are living on very low incomes, these tasks -- which most of us handle routinely -- are overwhelming and impossible to manage.

If you can rake leaves, put up storm windows, fix a leaky faucet or handle any other routine chores or minor home repairs, we need to hear from you. Even if you have just a few hours to spare, you can help a desperate neighbor remain in their own home a little longer. Work is arranged entirely around your schedule and near your home or office. Your gift of time will make a real difference in someone's life!

What's Hygge?

Here's What You Need to Know to Create a Cozy Vegan Home

We all need a little extra comfort right now, especially as we head into the colder months. Hygge (pronounced “HEW-guh”) is a Danish word that roughly translates to a feeling of coziness, contentment, and simplicity. It's often associated with plush blankets, roaring fireplaces, and warm food enjoyed indoors while the weather outside is cold and harsh. This fall, support your mental health by creating a hygge-inspired home while keeping animals' well-being in mind, too. Here's how to bring hygge into your home while being kind to animals:

Chunky Throw Blankets and Pillows

While hygge is really more about your mindset (slowing down, spending high-quality time with loved ones, and appreciating the simple things), a few decor additions can help you create a cozier home environment. Surrounding yourself with fabrics that no animals were harmed for can enhance this soothing feeling, since you'll be reminded of your compassionate choice every time you use that throw blanket or pillow. Help protect sheep, cows, foxes, coyotes, and other animals used for fashion and home goods by avoiding wool, silk, fur, leather, suede, and down.

Comfort Food

The phrase “comfort food” can bring to mind many different dishes, but most of them are probably warm, filling ones that bring back memories. This can be very personal, so make whatever dishes help you feel the most comforted. Family recipes can easily be veganized by using vegan milk, butter, meat, cheese, eggs, and sweeteners.

Warm Drinks

In the winter months, having a warm drink can be a nice way to start or end your days. If you are of legal drinking age and choose to enjoy an alcoholic beverage, check to make sure it's vegan and always drink responsibly. Warm tea lattes and hot chocolate are great nonalcoholic options.

Detox From Technology

The age of information can be overwhelming, especially when the world seems more chaotic than usual. Set aside some time each day to step away from the distractions of your phone or TV. Here are some simple things you can do instead of endlessly scrolling through social media:

- Curl up with a good book.
- Go for a nature walk with your dog (and bundle them up in a warm coat, too).
- Knit a hat or sweater with vegan yarn.
- Indulge in your favorite self-care

Bee-Free Candles

Why should you choose vegan soy wax candles? Because bees work hard and are exploited and often killed for beeswax, a material that they use to build their honeycombs. Plus, soy wax is clean and safe, unlike paraffin wax.

Cozy Clothing

Whether you're heading out into the brisk weather or curling up in front of the fireplace, cozy clothing can feel like a big hug. Just stay away from animal-derived materials, because there's no excuse for torturing and killing someone to steal their wool, fur, feathers, or skin.

HOPE CHURCH PRAYER LIST

Prayer is at the heart of our connection with God.

As a congregation, we join together in prayer during worship and carry that spirit into our daily lives. If you would like to add or remove a name from the Prayer List, please reach out to the church office. In our church lobby, you'll find a special prayer sculpture -- a space where you're invited to write down your prayer requests and hang them as a symbol of shared faith and hope. As we lift these needs before God, we are reminded of His loving presence among us. Please keep those on our Prayer List in your hearts. Reach out with a phone call, a card, or a kind note and continue to hold them in your thoughts & prayers.

NEW BUSINESS

Church Rental:

We did have a second prospective renter for $1200 month. No New Updates. Prospective renters are not being responsive; we are assuming they are no longer interested.

We would like to prepare a motion for the next congregational meeting that outlines and pre-approves the parameters within which we can negotiate a lease:

While we believe our approved motion at the last congregational meeting gives us broad latitude to negotiate, the prospective lease at the time was much higher and in the spirit of transparency and managing expectations, We would like to be able to negotiate to:

- A) Fair Market Value ($1200 Currently per our Realtor)
- B) Preferably 1-year initial lease term but negotiable
- C) Space usage: While this has already been fleshed-out we may need to negotiate this also
- D) We would insist on a reference letter from prospective lessee.

 - These two actions combined close the budget shortfall,
